2003 SELAKS SAUVIGNON BLANC

Marlborough, New Zealand

The Selak family arrived in New Zealand in 1934 with the original company founded by Croatian Marino Selak. He was an honorable pioneer, who at the time brought great skills and traditions of winemaking to the country. Mate, his nephew, arrived later in 1938 and established market gardens and vineyards in the west Auckland area with him. His two sons, Michael and Ivan then took over the business. Later, in September 1998, Nobilo Vintners purchased Selaks Wines, which in turn was purchased by leading global wine company BRL Hardy of Australia in mid-2000. Punchy mixture of gooseberry and melon on the nose, generously backed up with suggestions of zesty lemon and passion fruit. A cocktail of crisp, elegant and ripe fruit, finishing long and tangy. Try with shellfish, fish, white meats, goat's cheese, and as an aperitif.

1999 ROCCA DUCALE ROSSO DI MONTEFALCO Montefalco, Umbria, Italy

15% Sagrantino, 70% Sangiovese, 15% Merlot & Barbera.

Ruby-red with bright highlights. In the nose

it is complex and elegant, recalling plums and blackberry.

On the palate, the wine is hearty, full bodied, with good structure and tannins. The wine has been aged 12 months in oak barrels and it is suitable for long aging. Try with red meats, pasta, stews, casseroles and hard cheeses.

September Events Revisited

Italian Seminar Part 1: Chris Triddle, Winebow Imports, gave a great presentation of Northern Italian Wines. A lot of fun and learning took place as we sipped on top notch wines and ate great Italian food. This is a great value for $15.00. Don't miss Part II on October 21st.

A Taste of Parkville: It was a great turn out on September 9th to benefit Christmas on the River. Bill Grigsby was in perfect form that evening! Thanks to everyone that made this wonderful event happen.

Bring Your Dog to a Tasting Event: This is one of my favorite events of the year. If you love dogs, this was the place to be. We had great fun and raised money for the Parkville animal shelter at the same time. We hope to see you at the Spring Event in May of 2005.
