July Wine Club Blind Tasting Winners

The Wines by Jennifer team would like to thank everyone who participated in the Blind Wine Club Tasting for the month of July. We had many great responses to the guessing game and we sure hope you had as much fun swishing, swirling, sniffing and savoring your wines to determine what you were drinking as we did reviewing your responses. There were many great suggestions but alas the staff determined the top 5 winners of the contest.

1) Kabrick 2) Lange 3) Seifert 4) Scheidhaeur 5) Watkins

As you know, each selection for July was wrapped in a bag and you were to identify certain information regarding the wine. Here are the answers you have been waiting for:

White Wine:

- 1) South African
- 2) Stellenbosch
- 3) Chenin Blanc
- 4) 2003

Red Wine:

- 1) USA
- 2) Kansas
- 3) Cabernet Franc, Cabernet & Chancellor
- 4) 2001

Comments from all participants:

Red Wine:

Raisiny, smells of earth, a cross between Zinfandel and Gewürztraminer with earth, straw, caramel and slight chocolate, heavy and good.

Most popular guesses: Pinot Noir, Zinfandel, Shiraz, Merlot and Rioja

White Wine:

Just off-dry, lots of acid, nice fruit, a bit tangy, nice acidity and floral notes, maybe a Steen.

Most popular guesses: Viognier, Riesling and Sauvignon Blanc

December.*

Amy Bucher decided to be a photographer at about age 13. She didn't know what type of photography best suited her until she experienced formal photography training while earning her bachelor's degree in photography at Central Missouri State University in 1996. Since then, her emphasis has been on portraiture. After working for several prestigious portrait studios in the Kansas City area, Amy opened Amy Bucher Photographic Artist, Inc. in August of 2001. Located in the Waldo area of South Kansas City, Amy creates timeless portraits of families and children all around the city and country.
