August Wine Club Wines of the Month

White Wine

2005 LUCIEN ALBRECHT PINOT BLANC RESERVE, Cuvee Balthazar, Orschwihr Alsace, France

The history of the Albrecht family as winegrowers can be traced back to 1425 with Romanu Albrecht, who was settled in the town of Thann. This wine is named for Balthazar Albrecht, who settled in Orschwihr in 1698. The estate is now in its ninth generation of family control and is run by Jean Albrecht. The vineyards are organically farmed and no oak is utilized with this wine, but the fruit is picked when very ripe. The resulting wine has a bright golden color with a fresh bouquet expressing a slight minerality and fruity aromas. It's a light-bodied, dry, yet very soft wine, quite refreshing and loaded with ripe fruits such as apple, melon, peach and mango, with subtle mineral notes. Clean long finish. Pair with salads, seafood, fish, chicken, pork, veal and mild-flavored cheeses.

Red Wine

2003 NAPA GIRL CABERNET SAUVIGNON Napa Valley, California

Napa Girl Cabernet Sauvignon 2003 is the result of a special selection of 100% Cabernet Sauvignon grapes from the 2003 Napa harvest. A medium-bodied wine that is well-balanced, with ripe fruit, rich berries and a touch of spice. A hint of vanilla lingers on the velvety finish.

Napa Girl wines offer both high quality of fruit, fun and attractive packaging, and emphasizes the idea that wine can greatly enhance a lifestyle. The world-famous Napa Valley is known for its high quality wines, culinary offerings, gorgeous scenery and high quality of life which emphasizes the arts, philanthropy, education, and giving back. Napa Girl wines embody the essence of what makes Napa so unique in that they are excellent to share with friends, accompany a meal, provide a backdrop for great memories, and provide a connection to the community.

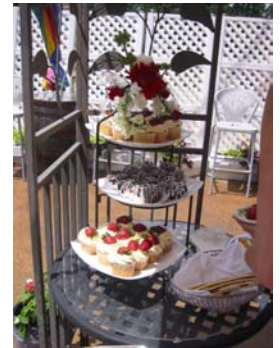

It is drinking wonderfully
